

We must keep our "do not call registry" the way it it's now. If I don't want telemarketers calling my home why the law will allow it? I'm register and still get some calls and it's very annoying to have your phone ringing at the oddest times like dinner time or early morning on a weekend. Do not change a thing. We are happy without the annoying calls.